

HOME NEWS.

PROMINENT ARRIVALS.

Fifth Avenue Hotel—Henry A. Richmond, of the U.S. State Civil Service Commission; Hoffman House—J. A. Dumont, United States Inspector General of Steamboats; Giles' Room—John J. Bright, of Indiana; Windham Hotel—Captain R. Spring of the steamer City of Chester; St. Nicholas Hotel—Napolo Lanck, Secretary of the Brazilian Legation at Washington.

NEW YORK CITY.

Daniel Queen, sixty years old, fell down stairs at No. 33 College-place last evening and was killed.

The number of immigrants landed at Castle Garden last week was 16,050.

H. H. Crooker, Jr., and E. C. Taylor were elected members of the Stock Exchange yesterday.

"Phillips's Business Directory," for 1883, fuller more complete and every way better than previous issues, is out.

Deaths last week, 668; births, 445; marriages, 250; arrests, 1,529; excheques granted, $52; and license fees collected, $33,600.

The Commencement of the College of Physicians and Surgeons will take place at Steinway Hall on Friday afternoon. President Porter, of Yale College, will address the graduates.

The Baltimore and Ohio Telegraph Company successfully laid its second cable across the Narrows yesterday afternoon. The two cables contain fourteen wires.

The Diocese of Long Island will hold its annual convention on Tuesday and Wednesday at the Church of the Holy Trinity. The Rev. Dr. Sulley will deliver the sermon at the opening service on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

ASTHOMA ON BOSTON SHOAL.

The steamer "Boston" while proceeding to sea last night grounded on Boston Shoal. It was low tide at the time it was expected that she would be about before morning.

THE MISSING INDIGENTS.

It was reported yesterday that Distrcit-Attorney McKeon would remove another clerk as a result of the investigation concerning the missing indigents. One man who was taken up to the time that McKeon left his office.

A LECTURE ON EMERSON.

Mrs. Isomene C. Fales, of Brooklyn, will deliver a lecture on "The Philosophy of Emerson Applied to Duty Life" at Frost's Hall, in East Fourteenth Street, on Friday evening. The lecture is for teetotalists, and the admission price is a dollar.

The Baltimore and Ohio Telegraph Company

succesfully laid its second cable across the Narrows yesterday afternoon. The two cables contain fourteen wires.

The Diocese of Long Island will hold its annual convention on Tuesday and Wednesday at the Church of the Holy Trinity. The Rev. Dr. Sulley will deliver the sermon at the opening service on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

THE MISSING INDIGENTS.

It was reported yesterday that Distrcit-Attorney McKeon would remove another clerk as a result of the investigation concerning the missing indigents. One man who was taken up to the time that McKeon left his office.

AT THE BILLIARD TOURNAMENT.

The emblem of championship that will be awarded to the winner of the billiard tournament was sent esterday from Police Headquarters for Letitia Vanderveert, who was reported missing from her parents' home in Madison-ave.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

he advised that it be torn down at once. The following buildings were reported as unsafe also: Nos. 53 East Broadway, 13 Eldridge-st., rear, 109 and 111 Seventh-ave., and the house on the west side of Tenth-ave., thirty feet north of One-hundred-and-fifty-sixth-st.

BROOKLYN.

The police made 590 arrests last week.

Permits for the erection of fifty-nine new buildings were granted last week.

Major Low reached Brooklyn yesterday after an absence of two weeks, which he spent at Lake George, Saratoga and Albany.

The man who swindled Supervisor Willis, of the First ward, out of $171.27 by means of a false check, was arrested yesterday in a house of ill-repute in New York. The Inspector and Detectives of the City will address the graduates.

The Baltimore and Ohio Telegraph Company

succesfully laid its second cable across the Narrows yesterday afternoon. The two cables contain fourteen wires.

The Diocese of Long Island will hold its annual convention on Tuesday and Wednesday at the Church of the Holy Trinity. The Rev. Dr. Sulley

will deliver the sermon at the opening service on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

THE MISSING INDIGENTS.

It was reported yesterday that Distrcit-Attorney

McKeon would remove another clerk as a result of the investigation concerning the missing indigents. One man who was taken up to the time that

McKeon left his office.

AT THE BILLIARD TOURNAMENT.

The emblem of championship that will be awarded to the winner of the billiard tournament was sent

esterday from Police Headquarters for Letitia Vanderveert, who was reported missing from her parents' home in Madison-ave.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLETON.—The furniture, medical instruments

and 250 volumes of medical works in the old Seamen's Retreat and the new one were sold yesterday.

THE BOSTONERS.—A suit was brought against the proprietors of the Bostoners, who were

claiming that the property sold was purchased by second-hand dealers of this city. The building will be at once occupied by the disabled sailors from the Government hospital on Bedloe's Island.

STAPLE